

School of Historical and Philosophical Inquiry
CLASSICS AND ANCIENT HISTORY HONOURS PROPOSAL FORM

PERSONAL DETAILS

Name _____ Student Number _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

Full-time or Part-time: _____ Year(s): _____

THESIS PROPOSAL

Proposed Thesis Title:

Paragraph describing your proposed thesis:

Proposed Supervisor: _____

Please discuss your thesis proposal with a member of Classics staff and the Classics Honours Advisor before you apply. Please see below the list of Classics staff and their areas of interest.

Professor Alastair Blanshard

Political culture and practice in the Athenian democracy, political oratory, Hellenistic Athens, ancient warfare, Greek history and language.

Dr Amelia Brown

Greek History, Art and Archaeology, Greek Language, Ancient Religion, Mediterranean Maritime History, Late Antiquity, post-Classical Greek cities (Corinth and Thessalonike), Phoenicians, Malta.

Dr Duncan Keenan-Jones

Roman History, Latin Language, Roman Archaeology, History of ancient technology, environment and societies.

Dr Janette McWilliam

Greek and Roman Political, Social and Cultural History, Roman Women and Children, Roman Art, Roman Law, Latin Epigraphy, Cultural Identities in the Ancient world, Pedagogical Approaches to teaching Classical Languages, Latin and Greek, Museum Studies.

Dr David Pritchard

The history, mythology, religion, culture and language of the ancient Greeks; Classical Athens.

Associate Professor Tom Stevenson

Roman politics and political ideology of the late Republic and early Empire; the careers of Cicero and Caesar; the first two centuries of emperor worship at Rome; Latin Language.